

ADVENTISTS IN QUADRENNIAL SESSION

REMARKABLE PROGRESS OF CHURCH IN MISSION WORK IS BROUGHT OUT IN ADDRESS BY ELDER DANIELLS; LITERATURE PRINTED IN ONE HUNDRED LANGUAGES AND REACHES FIFTEEN-SIXTEENTHS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE GLOBE

SCHOOLS AND SANITARIUMS AID IN WORK

"Finishing the gospel work in the whole world" is the keynote sounded by Elder Arthur G. Daniells of Washington, D. C., president of the General Conference of the Seventh-day Adventists, at the big quadrennial convention of the denomination for the Pacific Coast states, which is now in session at the Adventist church at California and Isabel Streets. Elder Daniells stirred the hearts of his large audiences as he spoke both Saturday and Sunday mornings concerning the remarkable progress Seventh-day Adventists have made in mission work, at home and abroad. Elder R. D. Quinn, also of Washington, D. C., and representing the General Conference, in his daily talks at 8:45 a. m., is sounding the call to universal action. "Every layman a worker," sums up the thought expressed in his discourses.

Seventh-day Adventists now publish their literature in nearly 160 languages, and thus are able to reach fifteen hundred million souls, or fifteen-sixteenths of the population of the globe, declared Elder Daniells, in his talk Sunday morning. "I am amazed at the wonderful providences of God," he said. "When God commanded the church to go into all the world with the three-fold message outlined in Revelation 14, he prepared the way. When he told us to preach the gospel to every creature, he went before us and broke down the barriers to the successful accomplishment of that work."

"The supreme question today is the finishing of God's work in the world," continued Elder Daniells. "Nothing is plainer than that it is the duty of the ministry to teach and train and organize the whole church for evangelistic service, for missionary endeavor. I wish we had awakened to it a quarter of a century ago, and had addressed ourselves properly to the task of doing that work. Only in a measure did we do so. But we put forth intelligent effort. We sent out our colporteurs, and today we have the greatest subscription book work in the world, so far as religious books are concerned."

WORKERS AMONG THE BOYS MEET TO PLAN FURTHER ACTIVITIES

The meeting called for Sunday afternoon in the Congregational church to plan further for group work among the boys of the city and select other group leaders, was called to order at 3:15 by Prof. Harry Howe, chairman. W. B. Kirk was the first speaker and his subject was "The Fundamental Needs of Boys." Mr. Kirk spoke especially on the religious needs of boys who were not in the churches and how the group plan of the Y. M. C. A. work is meeting those needs. He said the Federated Brotherhoods of the city had wrestled with the problem for several years but it was too large for them. He believes that the group leaders are solving this. The great need is a spiritual leader who understands boys, and Mr. Kirk is convinced that Mr. Williamson, the district secretary in Glendale, is the right man for the place. If the men of the city get behind him, success is assured. The boy is the man of the future and we must plan his life carefully. The war proved a blessing in one respect to many Glendale boys, awaking them to a purpose in life and building up their physical bodies. Boys who were loafers when they went, came back with high ideals, learned from mingling with other and stronger characters. The group leader has a most important job, and he should be of the right kind to handle boys. Past mistakes of the Y. M. C. A. should be forgotten and only the present work considered. CENTRAL AVE. BRIDGE CLOSED

Central Avenue bridge was closed to traffic Friday morning and will continue so for a week or more, Engineer Daley announces, while the driving of the heavy piles for the north side protection work is being finished and the bridge raised to a higher level. This will necessitate considerable detouring of traffic, as the only crossings of the Wash now open are the Louise Street and Pacific Avenue bridges. Burchett is the furthest street north on which detours can be made from Brand and Central Avenue on the west and Doran the one furthest north on the east side of Brand.

selves properly to the task of doing that work. Only in a measure did we do so. But we put forth intelligent effort. We sent out our colporteurs, and today we have the greatest subscription book work in the world, so far as religious books are concerned."

"No denomination in the world is abreast of Seventh-day Adventists in the circulation of religious literature. Each of our three large publishing houses in the United States sent out more than one million dollars' worth of denominational literature last year. Our publishing houses in other lands added perhaps two million dollars' worth. We are not publishing a dollar's worth of commercial literature in any of these printing plants."

"We are just establishing a splendid Canadian publishing house near our Eastern Canadian Missionary Seminary at Oshawa, Ontario. We have purchased 15 acres, and are putting in a good plant. "But more important than our printing houses with successful balance sheets, or our evangelistic work, or our schools filled with students or our sanitariums with waiting lists—more important, I say, than any of these, is the finishing of God's work in the world. These lines of endeavor are contributing factors to that end. Nothing we do in the world is of real and lasting worth unless in some way it contributes to the reaching of the souls of men and women, and saving them for the kingdom of God."

"I am glad to see our statistics show gains of 15,000 to 20,000 converts in a year. I am glad to see our splendid organization. But, dear friends, without one thing my heart never can be satisfied, and that is to see the work of God closed up. Why can we not see this materialized? Are we following a mirage?" A DELIGHTFUL VALENTINE EVE FUNCTION WELL ATTENDED. MEMBERS ADDED

Friday, the 13th, had no terrors for the Players' Club. On the contrary they consider it their lucky day, winding up as it did with a delightful dance and card party, with many new members added to the club's roster. The attendance was very satisfactory. There were several guests from San Gabriel, Los Angeles and Hollywood. The Masonic Temple, in which the affair was held, was decorated with red hearts, festoons and streamers of red crepe paper and a profusion of greenery.

Dancing began at 8:30 and continued uninterruptedly until 12. The most enjoyable feature of this part of the program was the Valentine dance, for which numbered hearts were given out. Then each gentleman was ordered to find as his partner for this dance the lady whose heart bore the same number as his. The card tables, where bridge and five hundred were played, proved an attraction for many who did not care for dancing. The officers of the club, headed by the genial president, D. Lamont Green, acted as a reception committee, and soon made everybody feel at home. The secretary was kept busy toward the close of the evening writing out application cards for new members. A very charming feature of the evening's entertainment was a fancy dance by Emilie Hills, one of Mrs. Pearl Keller's pupils. Refreshments of punch and wafers were served.

Plans were announced for the club's future activities and the statement was made that a tennis club is being formed. At the opening meeting next Tuesday evening this will be completed, and further plans discussed.

DR. CARHART, OCCIDENTAL TRUSTEE, DEAD

Dr. H. S. Carhart, one of the trustees of Occidental College, died at his home in Pasadena Thursday night. The funeral will be held Monday at 3 p. m. in the Pasadena Presbyterian Church.

FRENCH CRITICISM OF WILSON

ACCUSED OF TRYING TO BLOCK EUROPEAN POWERS WITHOUT SUPPORT OF HIS OWN COUNTRYMEN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, Feb. 16.—The French press is aroused by reports that President Wilson has sent a note to the intente informing them that if they settle the Adriatic question without American concurrence, the United States cannot concern itself with the settlement of pending European questions. La Liberte is particularly bitter in its comments.

"Wilson, from his proud isolation, is again attempting to direct affairs on the continent of which he has no conception," it was declared. The newspaper said the note was delivered to the "Big Three" by Ambassador Wallace and declared that the United States would not recognize either the pact of London or the recent compromise agreement addressed to the Jugo-Slav government by the Council of Premiers. "This man who is opposed in his own country is again trying to block the European powers," said La Liberte.

ANOTHER MEXICAN KIDNAPING

BANDITS HOLD WILSON W. ADAMS AT ABALOS FOR RANSOM OF 50,000 PESOS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—Wilson Welch Adams, an American, was kidnaped by Mexican bandits February 13 at Abalos and is being held for 50,000 pesos ransom, the State Department was advised today. Adams is superintendent of the Provincial Mine, an American concern. His wife and one child live in Los Angeles. The bandits are reported to have looted the company's warehouses. The report also says that federal troops are pursuing the bandits.

SALE OF GERMAN LINERS

SPIRITED BIDDING AT HEADQUARTERS OF SHIPPING BOARD; SENATE TRIES TO HOLD UP SALE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—Bidding in millions General George W. Goethals and C. A. S. Franklin engaged in a spirited contest for five of the former German liners, the auction of which started at the Shipping Board here today. While the auction was in progress the Senate adopted the McKellar resolution directing the Shipping Board to hold up temporarily the proposed sale. The first bid for the liners was ten millions. When the auction adjourned for lunch the last bid was $13,100,000 by Franklin. The "George Washington," President Wilson's ship, headed the list of the five which are to go into the Hamburg-American service. The others were: Martha Washington, America, President Grant, Callao and Mansemond. Goethals represented the American Shipping and Commerce Corporation and Franklin is head of the International Merchant Marine. Other moves in the effort to hold the ships today were: Justice Bailey of the District of Columbia Supreme Court, after hearing arguments for an injunction to restrain the sale, announced that he would hand down his decision next Friday.

A letter from the Senate Commerce Committee asking President Wilson to keep John Barton Payne at the head of the Shipping Board until pending problems are disposed of, was received at the White House. Payne is to become Secretary of the Interior March 1.

Debate on ship sales broke out in the Senate when Senators Ashurst and McKellar pressed for action on their resolutions to defer the sale.

FOURTEEN HUNDRED CALLED FOR JURY

JURY WILL BE SECURED IN BISBEE CASE TODAY IT IS BELIEVED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

TOMBSTONE, Feb. 16.—Fourteen hundred of the 7500 names on the Cochise County jury list will have been called when the Bisbee deportation trials are resumed this afternoon. Of this number about eight hundred have been actually served. Less than half of that number is actually available for examination because many are disqualified under Arizona laws. It is estimated that 200 of the new venire will be on hand at the opening of court today. From this number it is believed a jury will be obtained. Special Prosecutor Worsley will be in charge this afternoon.

McADOO'S CANDIDACY

INDORSED FOR PRESIDENCY BY DEMOCRATIC ORGAN IN INDIANA WHICH SUPPORTS TAGGART FOR SENATOR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 16.—The Daily Times, published by W. D. Boyce, today said that William G. McAdoo will accept the Democratic nomination for the presidency "if the people demand his services." The article indorsed McAdoo as a candidate and Thomas Taggart, former Democratic National Chairman for United States Senator to succeed Senator Harry S. New. The paper is regarded as the progressive democratic organ of Indiana.

SCHOOLS CLOSED

AUTHORITIES TAKE MEASURES TO PREVENT SPREAD OF INFLUENZA

On the recommendation of the State Board of Health, Sanitary Inspector Chobe of this city, working in conjunction with Health Officer Dr. R. E. Chase, issued an order to the public schools of Glendale this noon to close their doors to pupils. This will affect all the city schools and Glendale Union High School. Mr. Chobe states that fifteen new cases were reported this morning. He also said it is probable that the Palace Grand Theatre and the churches will be closed.

He stated that the municipal hospital will be opened at Fire House No. 2 at the corner of Brand and Los Feliz Road without loss of time where patients will be received and cared for by experienced nurses at a charge of $25 per week, which he says will barely cover the cost. It will not be a charity institution, he says, but a place where any self-respecting citizen can go who needs care. It has just been equipped with new beds and bedding and all necessary equipment.

Mr. Chobe states that the cases thus far reported for the most part have been of a mild form and that no deaths have been reported.

OHIOANS DELIGHTED WITH GLENDALÉ HOME

L. E. Jackman and daughter, Mary J., are now settled in their new home at 1239 South Glendale Avenue. They came to California from Hamden, Ohio, 25 miles east of Chillicothe, last June and stopped first at Oakland, but, hearing so much of the beauties of the Southland they decided to come down to Los Angeles, which they did in December. A casual visit to Glendale so impressed Mr. Jackman with its charms, where one "could live near the country yet have every convenience of city life," that he determined to locate here and it did not take him long to find a place that suited him and his daughter, where they could be in the heart of the city, yet feast their eyes on the glory of the tree-crowned hills in the near foreground. — Mr. Jackman was a farmer for many years, so he feels right at home in his garden plat and among the fruit trees.

VALENTINE SHOWER

Miss Ivy Mills of South Louise St. was guest of honor at a pretty party and shower given Saturday evening by her sister, Mrs. Lou Kerri. Red carnations, hearts and little kewpies figured in the decorations. Each guest received a valentine, the envelope which came to the guest of honor referring her to the spot where her valentine had been hidden which when discovered by her was found to contain the shower. About fourteen guests were present, and it was a very pleasant evening for all who participated.

XVI FUNCTION

MRS. WARREN ROBERTS AND MISS MCCOY ENTERTAIN WITH VALENTINE PARTY

Mrs. Warren Roberts, assisted by Miss Alice McCoy, was hostess at an exceedingly pretty card party which took place at the beautiful home of Mrs. Roberts Saturday evening, and at which members of the XVI Club and their friends were entertained.

A most effective scheme of valentine decoration made a beautiful setting for the affair. Festoons of red and green small hearts centered with a large red heart were suspended from the chandeliers, in the doorways, and from the corners of the room. The color scheme was repeated in big bouquets of red carnations and ferns.

Eight tables were set for Five Hundred and at the close of play the gentlemen were requested to draw envelopes which were found to contain hearts which bore the initials of the ladies assigned to them for luncheon partners. After the pairing off under this agreeable scheme, a two-course luncheon was served. The ladies' prize for high score went to Miss Fredonia Borthick, and continued on Page 4

CITY CLERK'S ANNUAL REPORT

City Clerk J. C. Sherer has a plentiful supply of copies of his financial statement for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1919, and will be glad to place one in the hands of every one who will call at his office for same, as he feels that the information therein contained is of vital interest to every taxpayer.

THEY LOVE GLENDALÉ

BRIDE AND GROOM CHOOSE THIS CITY AS IDEAL IN EVERY WAY FOR HOME

H. C. Chapman and wife sold their home at 632 North Louise recently to Mrs. M. S. Maloney, a wealthy lady of Tulsa, Okla., head of a large manufacturing company there, who expected to locate permanently in Glendale. But unexpected business developments called her back to Tulsa and she sold the property to A. E. Antuney of Los Angeles, who was married on January 27 and was looking for a suburban home. Mr. Antuney, who is connected with a real estate firm, said he had attended to business so closely up to the time of his marriage that he had never visited the suburban cities round about. His first trip to Glendale, he said, was a revelation. He had never dreamed that so beautiful a city lay right at the door of the big town and he resolved at once that this should be his home. His wife is equally delighted, and they both say that for climate, beautiful homes and scenic surroundings Glendale is unsurpassed. Mr. Antuney is a native son and his bride was born in Palermo, Sicily, coming to America when she was 9 years old. Her native city is across the island from Mt. Aetna, around the base of which have been so many destructive earthquakes, she says, and has suffered very little from these.

LEAP YEAR VALENTINE SOCIAL

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McPherson of 416 Pioneer Drive were host and hostesses at a Leap Year Valentine social enjoyed by about forty young people of the First Baptist Church Friday evening. Spring flowers were used in decoration and a profusion of red hearts. Valentine games, such as "proposals," "telegrams," "heart hunts," "broken hearts," etc., constituted the diversions of the evening for which programs similar to those furnished at dancing parties were provided, the young ladies being required to secure partners for each game. During the intermissions there was piano and Victrola music. Light refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

HORSESHOE CLUB GROUNDS TORN UP

Walter Nicles, secretary of the Glendale Horseshoe and Tourist Club reports that on Saturday night some miscreants tore up the new grounds at the corner of Orange and Broadway, and carried off some of the croquet arches. He says the club members have been greatly annoyed of late by a crowd of boys of 12 to 15 years old who insisted on using the horseshoes and the croquet set. They were forbidden to do so and threatened revenge. He is hoping that if these boys were guilty of the depredations they will think better of it and bring back the articles taken away, so that they may avoid trouble.

BUILDING PERMITS OVER $100,000

The building permits for the first 14 days of February totalled $97,180. Those taken out already today bring the amount up to more than $100,000. The largest permit issued so far was for $10,000.

'SHOWERS AND FLOODS'

STIRRING SERMON BY REV. W. E. EDMONDS AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Presbyterian Church held a large and interested audience yesterday at the morning service hour. Solos by Mr. Clifford Riggs and Mrs. Fannie Marple Retts were the special musical attractions. The pastor took as his text, Isa. 44:3-5. "I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground; I will pour my spirit upon thine offspring. And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water courses. One shall say I am the Lord's and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the Lord, and surname himself by the name of Israel."

A few extracts from the sermon were as follows: There are three words in these verses, to each of which we will put a capital F—Floods, Fields, Fruits. Every man saved from the thrall— (Continued on Page 3)

A VALENTINE GIRL

BIRTHDAY OF PATRICIA PEIRCE, BORN FEBRUARY 14, CELEBRATED WITH PARTY

Little Patricia Peirce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Peirce of 317 Vine street was the guest of honor at a children's party given by her mother Saturday afternoon in celebration of Patricia's fifth birthday. While the party was a big event, the little girl was not reconciled to the absence of her father on such an occasion. He has been gone about five weeks on a business trip. All the morning she prayed fervently for his return, not knowing that he was expected. Mrs. Peirce slipped away to drive to Pasadena to meet her husband and the little daughter was delightedly surprised when they returned together, her cup of happiness being full. Valentine decorations and games featured the celebration and delicious refreshments which included two birthday cakes made by Mrs. L. M. Peirce and Mrs. J. C. Wait, the grandmothers of the honoree. Guests were Maxine and Sallie Heasley, Eloise Knaus, Adelaide Veasey, Dorothea and Francis Judy, Charles Rudel, Gordon Cook, Jean Duffett and Patricia Peirce.

INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT SEEMS ASSURED

Additional protests were made at Friday night's meeting of the City Trustees against the establishing of an industrial district in the extreme western section of the city, bordering on the San Fernando Road. As a general answer to the protests filed, it was stated that the ordinance providing for the establishment of said industrial district would really be a protection against the location of business plants that might be considered nuisances, for while there is nothing in the ordinances now to prohibit the location of any such business in any but restricted districts, this new measure sets forth plainly just what industries can and can not be located and provides that permits will be required for the establishing of any kind of industry. The ordinance was then given a first reading and will be passed at the next meeting unless complications arise.

FORTNIGHTLY BRIDGE CLUB

The Fortnightly Bridge Club met Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Ayars, 315 North Orange Street. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the Valentine idea being carried out in a charming manner. The following members of the club met promptly at eight o'clock and indulged in the favorite game of Bridge: Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Puffer, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Howeth, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Wernette, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Henry and Mr. and Mrs. Ayars. Mrs. Warner, of Seattle, Wash., who is spending the winter in California, was present, and entered into the game. Mrs. Charles Parker won the highest score for the ladies and Mr. J. I. Wernette for the men. After the game was finished the guests were invited to the dining room, where the Valentine decorations were much in evidence, and where the guests partook of a substantial evening meal. This club, as its name indicates, meets every two weeks, and the members agree that these times spent together are full of joy and good fellowship.

PINK TEA PARTY

Mrs. J. G. Huntley was hostess at one of the Tuesday Afternoon Club teas Friday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Seymour Smith on North Central avenue. The house was beautifully decorated with pink carnations and ferns and a pleasant atmosphere was spent by the guests with music and conversation over their needlework. Delicious refreshments were served, the guest list including: Mesdames J. Herbert Smith, Frank S. Fell, Daniel Campbell, C. W. Dudley, George Moyle, David Gregg, Seymour Smith, E. Meredith, J. McClellan, John Dunn, J. H. Orth.

DEATH OF HARVEY A. DOBBINS

Friends of Harvey A. Dobbins, who resided in Glendale for more than two years and who left here to go to Bakersfield, died at his home in that city Thursday afternoon, February 12, 1920. The remains were brought to this city this morning by the pastor of deceased and funeral services were held at the Little Church of the Flowers at 10 a. m. Deceased is survived by his widow, two sons and a daughter, Donald, James and Gladys Dobbins. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. E. Smith, of 1022 North Louise Street, Glendale.

VALENTINE SHOWER

Mrs. Albert Pearce was guest of honor at a very pretty Valentine tea party given by Mrs. Charles Temple at her home on Orange Street, a pink color scheme dominating decorations and refreshments. Mrs. Temple's little son acted as postman and brought a valentine to each guest, the one for Mrs. Pearce being a big pink, heart-shaped box which contained gifts from all the ladies present. Mrs. W. E. Evans read some poems appropriate to the occasion and a highly entertaining guessing game was played. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. A. M. Hunt and Mrs. Walter Stamps. Other ladies present were: Mrs. Albert Pearce and her mother, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. W. E. Evans, Mrs. A. W. Tower, Mrs. Alfred Priest, Mrs. Harry Goodwin, Mrs. Warren Roberts, Mrs. Lucius Phillips of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Howard Martin of the same city. Mrs. Mabel Rudy, Mrs. M. L. Russell, Mrs. H. R. Boyer and her sister, Mrs. Newell, Mrs. Cameron Thom, Mrs. Harry Lockwood, Mrs. Lou Sherman, Mrs. John Huntley, Mrs. Wilbur McFadden of Bakersfield.

JUNIPER TEA PARTY

Last Thursday Mrs. A. A. Barton of 630 North Howard Street informally entertained a group of ladies of the Doran Street P. T. A. who know each other very well at one of the teas which are being given for the Tuesday Afternoon Club building fund. Flags were used in decoration, also beautiful juniper boughs brought from the Tejon Pass. There was no program and light refreshments were served. The guest list included: Mesdames Frank Salter, M. E. Plasterer, F. H. Cassell, Clark Johnson, Frank Chambers, P. S. McNutt, B. L. Cline, and Misses Lois Hatch and Ethel Land.

CLASS PARTY

At their new home at 343 West Broadway, Misses Eunice and Agnes Caldwell entertained members of their Sunday School class and friends with a Valentine party Saturday evening. The decorations were appropriate to St. Valentine's Day, and so were the games with which the young people were entertained. In one of the games, which was played with hearts, the girls' prize was won by Helen Sherwood, and the high favor for the boys by Wilford Cline. There was also considerable music and dainty refreshments were served. The invited guests were: Josephine Emery, Helen Sherwood, Louise Hollenbeck, Zenaide Seubert, Pearl Luttrell, Anna Merriken and Miss Margaret Lusby, the teacher of the class; Messrs. Wilford Cline, Waldo Yard, Robert Hesse, Clare Stalsley, Clifford May, Steeleman Chase and Verne Wilson.

DEATH OF HAROLD O. LAURENCE

Harold O. Laurence passed away at his home at 230 South Central Avenue Sunday morning, February 15, 1920, at 4:30 o'clock after an illness which had extended over many months. He was thirty-seven years of age, was a native of Ohio and had resided in Glendale ever since he came to California three years ago. He leaves a devoted wife, Beatrice Laurence, and a host of friends. He had been a camera man for the American Film Company. Funeral services will be held at the Jewel City Undertaking Parlors Tuesday afternoon at 2 p. m. Mr. Vroom, a Christian Science reader of Los Angeles, will conduct them. Interment in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

VALENTINE PARTY

Members of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor of the Glendale Presbyterian Church enjoyed a Valentine party Friday evening at the home of Miss Hope Ireland at 211 West Milford street.

A short business session preceded the social part of the evening. A pretty setting for the affair had been provided in the decoration of the house with hearts and other Valentine decorations. Games were played and valentine prizes bestowed on those who had the highest scores, the prize winners being: Stephen Fairchild, first game; Helen Engle, second game; Mabel Prinderville, third game. Refreshments of cake, punch and candy were served by the hostess. Those present were: Misses Mabel Prinderville, Martha Eilers, Inez Harrison, Margaret West, Alma Engle, Phyllis Baker, Margaret Fife, Louise Dair, Helen Engle, Beulah Hock, Elizabeth Edmonds, Margaret Simpson, Jeannette Heiding, Louise Hoyt, Hope Ireland, Messrs. Paul Edmonds, Charles DuBois, Chester Weaver, John Simpson and Stephen Fairchild.

CORRECT TREATMENT OF INFLUENZA

Influenza is due to infection, probably taken into the system through the breathing organs and its most marked effects are prostration, debility and a general lack of "pep." The aim of home treatment should be to save the strength and avoid exposure. Now the popular custom is to use strong cathartics, depressing acetanilid preparations and aspirin. A far better treatment for a cold or influenza is to keep the patient in bed, warm and comfortable, and give nothing but hot water and mild teas freely. If the patient is not improved in a day or two call a physician and follow implicitly the treatment indicated by him.

PRESTONS SEE WHALE AT LONG WHARF

T. W. Preston and wife of North Jackson took their usual week end fishing trip to Long Wharf, near Santa Monica, Saturday and besides making a good catch witnessed an unusual sight. A whale, apparently 35 or 40 feet long, came in from the sea, fouled and dragged into the waters several lines, then circled about and went around on the other side of the wharf, where it stopped to "blow." More than 100 fishers observed it. Mr. Preston says it passed within 15 feet of him as he stood on the wharf with Mrs. Preston, and they could see a lot of barnacles on his side.

Personals

Two sons of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Bryant have been confined to their home and quite sick with severe colds.

Wm. Campbell and wife of Parsons, Kas., are spending a few weeks in Glendale. They are located at 920 North Central Avenue.

Mrs. John Scott of Hammond, Ind., is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Woodyard, of 454 Vine Street. She will be with them for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Verdugo are the happy parents of a little daughter who arrived Friday morning. She is their first child and has not yet been named.

C. F. Latter, who lived in Boynton Street, this city, but is now a resident of Oakland, is a visitor in Glendale for a few days at the Morehouse home on East Lonita.

Willard Learned was brought home from Occidental College last Friday suffering from an attack of mumps. The disease is epidemic at Occidental, Willard says, but none of the cases are serious.

Charles F. Crane, brother-in-law of Mrs. R. M. Brown of 416 North Kenwood street, left Friday for his home in Iowa. He has been here since November and finds it necessary to return to look after his business. Mrs. Crane is still here.

Fourteen members of the H. M. O. S. were entertained Friday with a one o'clock luncheon by Mrs. A. J. Chappius of 606 East Acacia Avenue. It was a St. Valentine affair, a red and white color scheme being carried out in floral and other decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Clark and little daughter of 346 North Louise St., accompanied by their relatives, Simms McCann, Charles McCann, and Philip Du Pree, made the ascent of Mount Wilson in their automobile on Sunday. They found it a delightful trip and encountered many other machines going and coming.

Miss Margaret Lusby, who is attending the University of Southern California, is now a resident of a sorority there and will spend only the week-ends in Glendale. She has undertaken heavier work and does not feel that she can afford to lose the time consumed in going back and forth to and from Glendale.

A jolly Valentine party was enjoyed by a congenial crowd of adults who motored to Venice Saturday night for an evening of dancing. The group included Mr. and Mrs. Blake Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. George Lyons, Dr. and Mrs. Leslie Eames, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Baird, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Worley, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nelson, Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Young.

Mrs. Anna McDonald of 438 Pioneer Drive is entertaining this afternoon with an informal affair in honor of the eighty-fifth birthday of her mother, Mrs. Martha E. Scotten. Decorations will be carried out in red valentines and along patriotic lines. Dainty refreshments will be served the guests who gather to congratulate Mrs. Scotten.

Mrs. Thomas G. Widmeyer of 503 North Kenwood street entertained with a tea party for the benefit of the Tuesday Afternoon Club building fund last Wednesday. It was quite informal, her guest list including Mesdames Brown, Tanner, Hollister, Criswell and Kidd of Glendale and Mrs. Moore and Miss Marshall of Los Angeles.

Rev. C. A. Cole on Friday night visited Broadway Christian church in Los Angeles, whose pastor, Rev. Arthur W. Higby, is a resident of Glendale by his own choice and with the consent of his congregation. Rev. Cole went down to see his old friend and college mate, C. L. Organ, evangelist, who is holding revival meetings there, assisted by his wife.

Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Willisford entertained Friday evening the officers of the First Congregational Church in honor of Rev. James H. Batten, the field representative of the Pilgrim Memorial Fund. It was an informal social evening during which Mr. Batten explained the plans and purposes of the fund. Light refreshments were served by the hostess.

Miss Katherine Weisling starts tomorrow for the old home in St. Louis, Mo., to visit her two married sisters, one of whom is ill. She and her mother and sister, Amelia, moved to Glendale a few months ago from St. Louis. Miss Katherine expects to return to Glendale in the spring and the two sisters will accompany her, with a view to locating in sunny California.

Louie Lewis, who was with the Ford agency in Glendale before going over to France with the A. E. F., and for a short time after his return, is now working with his brother, A. F. Lewis, in an advertising business with headquarters in both Chicago and New York. He was in Glendale over Sunday to visit old friends. Louie says he works in the office half his time and is on the road the other six months of the year. He is on one of his regular trips now.

T. G. Mauritz, a newspaper and advertising man of Seattle, is a guest of the Sorensen family at 453 Oak Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Jones and family of Ocean Park, were in Glendale Sunday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Jones, of 310 West Hawthorne.

Mrs. William Mackey, of Milwaukee, Wis., sister of Alexander and George Mitchell, is the house guest of George Mitchell on Kenneth Road and will be here for two or three months.

Roy Kent was compelled to absent himself from many business engagements this morning on account of the severe illness of his son, Howard. The boy was somewhat better at noon.

J. E. Peters of 209 North Orange, who travels for a Los Angeles house, was compelled to quit work last Wednesday on account of a severe cold and fever. He is now on the mend but unable to resume work.

Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker entertained for the week-end at her home at 246 Central Avenue Miss Eleanor S. Bennett of Long Beach, one of the editors of the Long Beach Telegram, and author of the "Peggy from Paris" letters.

Miss McGrath, graduate of the Chicago Musical College, who is now a teacher in the Page School for Girls in Los Angeles, spent the week-end with her old friend, Mrs. Alexander Mitchell. Fred Belz of Chicago, who is spending the winter in Los Angeles, was also a Sunday guest in the Mitchell home.

Mrs. C. H. Toll of Kenneth Road is quarantined for two weeks on account of the illness of influenza of her little son, Maynard. He is not dangerously ill and she looks for his speedy recovery, but meanwhile is cut off from personally conducting the Y. W. C. A. campaign and from entertaining the Reading Circle for two weeks.

F. A. Hanger and family who have lived at La Crescenta the past five years, where they conducted a hotel, moved to Glendale last week and are now located at 300 South Isabel Street. Mr. Hanger has been in the hotel business for twenty years having been in that work in Chicago before coming to California and feels the need of a change.

Mr. Blanford, director of athletics in the City Schools, says the boys are resting between the seasons for basketball and track work. A meeting of teachers who direct the work in the various schools will be held in the near future to determine just what track work shall be taken up and whether one big tourney will be arranged or a series of smaller ones.

C. Bellfoot of Los Angeles, driving his machine north on Brand yesterday, ran into W. H. Reithmaier's auto as the latter was backing from in front of the Glendale Savings Bank, where he had parked. The body of the latter's machine was dented considerably and the lights on Mr. Bellfoot's were smashed. Mr. Reithmaier lives at 318 West Elk Avenue.

Mrs. J. Glenwood Jones, who lived for several years in the house she and Mr. Jones built at 415 South Central Avenue and later at 311 Vine, was the guest of Mrs. Theodore Peirce of 317 Vine, an old friend and neighbor, last week. Mr. and Mrs. Jones sold their property to Mrs. A. H. Montgomery and are staying for the present at the Minnewaska apartments in Los Angeles. Mrs. Jones has a three-months' leave of absence from her Social Welfare work in New York City and will return there soon.

H. Bogen, wife and two sons moved last Wednesday into Mrs. Lobdell's property at 347 West Windsor Road, coming here from Los Angeles, where Mr. Bogen is employed. Mrs. Bogen says they chose Glendale for a home because of its beautiful surroundings and healthfulness. One of her first acts after settling in the new home was to order the Evening News, thinking that to be the quickest way to get acquainted with the city's activities and its people.

MRS. MULVHILL EXPECTS DAUGHTER'S VISIT

Mrs. John B. Mulvihill of 134 North Louise received a telegram Saturday from her daughter, Florence Electa Minevera Mulvihill, whose stage name is Flo Melvin, stating that the Maytime Company, of which she is a member, was to leave Salt Lake City, Utah, that night for Los Angeles, for a week's engagement, during which she expects to visit her mother daily.

TURKISH ATROCITIES

ARMENIAN SPEAKER AT WEST GLENDALE CHURCH DESCRIBES EXPERIENCES

The "Near East Relief Campaign" opened at the West Glendale M. E. Church Sunday evening when Rev. D. B. Tahmisiian, director of the American Zion Orphans' Home at Zinjadere, Cesarea, Turkey in Asia Minor, was the speaker. As he has personally experienced the horrors of the Armenian persecutions and has thirteen times been exposed to death because he refused to renounce his faith, his address was full of the most thrilling and tragic incidents. He told of one occasion on which he had been given fifteen minutes in which to either renounce his religion or prepare for death by hanging. He utilized the time to preach a sermon which was heard by one of the high officials of Turkey who decided it would be better to banish him to the desert where he would suffer a more lingering death. But life was strong in him and though his sustenance was reduced to grass, he was rescued before death overtook him. At the time he was banished he was the pastor of a very large church. He told of one occasion when five thousand children were gathered together in the desert where their parents were addressed by a Moslem priest and told that unless they renounced their faith all the children would be massacred. To illustrate how it would be done he picked up a five-year-old child and literally tore it apart, completing his murderous work by dashing its head against a stone. When the parents refused to relinquish their religion, all the children were massacred. Another of the tragic incidents related was an account of the surrounding of a church in which 1500 Armenian Christians and their pastor were gathered. They were given twenty minutes in which to renounce their faith or be put to death. They refused the demand and the pastor asked the privilege of being the first one to die. The entire congregation was put to death. The things told by the speaker he had either personally witnessed or learned through absolutely reliable sources, he declared. He stated that at this time 250,000 babies are starving in Armenia and 500,000 girls are prisoners in Turkish harems. No means are available to preserve them from starvation if released. These people, he said, supported the cause of the allies in the late war and in the last forty years have been the victims of three great massacres and of constant persecution at the hands of the Turks. Over 800,000 have perished. They are looking to America and the allies for help and are asking above everything else freedom from Turkish rule. Unless something effective is done at once by Christendom, the speaker declared, they will perish from the earth. The service was attended by persons from all parts of the city and from Pasadena. The greatest interest was manifested and there was an enthusiastic response to the appeal for funds, the subscriptions exceeding the apportionment to the West Glendale church.

CHECK DAMS STAND TEST

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fife and family of 314 North Orange Street motored to San Dimas Canyon Sunday afternoon, taking with them Mrs. H. M. McQuown, formerly of 312 North Orange Street, who has been visiting friends in Glendale during the past few days. Mr. McQuown is in charge of work for the L. A. County Flood Control in San Dimas Canyon and says that during the cloudburst there last week 1.45 inches of rain fell in less than 15 minutes. He said it was a great sight to see the water coming down the canyon more than four feet deep, and every one of the check dams of which he had charge stood the test, none of them breaking. It had been reported that several of the dams had given away, but Mr. McQuown was there during the storm and says every one held its own with no signs of even weakening.

MILFORD STREET CARD CLUB

Mrs. E. L. Young was the hostess of the Milford Street Card Club Friday and varied the usual program by serving a Valentine luncheon previous to play, her table being very prettily decorated with pink hearts and cupid. Covers were laid for Mesdames Southard, Heustis, Vinton, Fletcher, Hostford, H. V. Henry, Peet, Pendleton, J. R. White, McPherson, her sister, Mrs. George Pannier, and the hostess. Mrs. Vinton had the high score.

dom of sin is the work of the Holy Spirit. The greatest thing that can come into the life of a believer is the knowledge that he is cleansed. Water satisfies — "Whoever shall drink of the water of life," etc. Perpetual refreshment. Water fertilizes—fruitage. Water energizes—a drop of water multiplied turns all the wheels of commerce. Water is necessary. Be not drunk with wine but be filled with the Holy Spirit. A God intoxicated man.

Floods—they sweep everything before them. It is the flood time for which the church prays. What do we want floods for? "I will pour the flood upon the dry ground." Is there any dry ground in your life? What about your Christian life the past year? Are you satisfied with it? No, of course not. Shall we put up an electric sign and call this church a mighty flood of worldliness? These things are mighty hard, but not too hard for the Lord. Don't you think for a single moment God is going to send any floods of spiritual blessings where they are not wanted. God's word sown shall come true. The Holy Spirit is able to break up the ground. Quit trying to do things for yourself and make yourself a channel for the Holy Spirit. The fruit—it shall spring forth as the grass. Are there any dry spears of grass in your life? You need the Holy Spirit for the little things in your life. Is your life like a willow tree? Does it have continual spiritual refreshment, or is there a lack of greenness? And with the floods of the Holy Spirit in our hearts shall come the dawning of a new day. The Lord will pour out on us His wonderful power. "Whatsoever you do shall prosper." May God grant it for His name's sake.

ADVENTISTS IN SESSION

By no means. Yet men who a few years ago were in the prime of life, now walk with unsteady step, and still our task is not finished. I believe the time has come to concentrate our energies upon the completion of God's work. It will make us more earnest, more economical, more fervent in spirit."

The church was crowded at the Sabbath service Saturday morning when Elder Daniells spoke on the same general theme. He said the crudest, wildest people, the most degraded savages in the world are responding to the gospel, and that it is transforming their lives. "Twenty years ago," he continued, "I heard a minister expounding a text of Scripture on righteousness by faith. During his talk he said that scientists tell us there is wonder enough in a single flower to occupy man's study for a lifetime. As I thought of his statement, the conviction came to me that any man who would spend a lifetime in that way would be a fool. Let me illustrate my thought."

"Suppose out on the seashore a ship, filled with men and women, is being pounded to pieces on the rocks. The breakers are rolling over her. Unless a lifeline reaches her those souls will perish. How could I, in the face of those lives in peril, spend my time examining a flower growing along the shore, however beautiful it might be. That would be criminal. Under the circumstances, there would be nothing whatever for me to do but to dismiss everything else and throw my whole life into the rescue of the perishing on that ship."

"Only one thing can meet the world's situation today. The editor of a large daily paper writes: 'Human management of the affairs of this world is failing. Without divine intervention, the world and its people will plunge into chaos. There appears to be no man or men big enough in this land to stay the rising tide of disaster. God alone can save. In prayer alone exists hope. The people must get down on their knees and ask for divine aid.'"

"Many writers say the world is out of control, that nothing can stay it, that only the power of the living God can meet the situation. How shall human beings get in touch with that power? Through the church of God; God's men and women in the world. I have a conviction that the hour has come for me individually to so sense the situation that my soul shall be awakened as it never has in my life. The call of God today is for an awakened church, a church thoroughly aroused for the work to which God calls."

"There is such a thing as being beyond hearing. There may be a cry of distress, a call for help beyond our sense of sound. It is possible for professed Christians to occupy a place where they can not hear the calls they ought to hear; to be unseeing when they ought to see."

Elder Daniells opened the social hour at 3:30 Saturday afternoon, being followed by Elder R. D. Quinn. "All things in the lives of Christians should be subservient to the finishing of the work of God on time," said Elder Quinn. Not only is the thought of personal endeavor uppermost in the minds of Seventh-day Adventists, but others are grasping the thought as well. Dr. Wilbur Chapman has expressed the same thought, accounting neighbors responsible for neighbors, parents for children, kin for kin.

"The 'Acts of the Apostles' contains an interesting account of a few men, one hundred twenty in number, who, by oneness of mind and consecration, ceased not till the gospel had reached every part of the then known world. By incorporating their methods in our work the same results can be attained."

The meeting was thrown open for general testimonials from the floor. Many prominent leaders spoke encouragingly of their faith in this world-wide movement and the cause they have espoused through trial and difficulty.

Elder J. O. Corliss said: "Not all the acts of the apostles are yet written. The former scenes are to be re-enacted with greater power than before. The former outpouring of the Holy Spirit was glorious, but the latter reign will be more abundant."

Elder J. W. Christian said: "The time has come when the comforts of a home, ideally situated, must be secondary to the call of God to regions beyond. If the many calls for workers are answered, every man from the conference presidents down to the laymen must be ready to respond."

Elder Daniells said: "God's call to the apostles made them what they became. They were not perfect men, but their contact with God enabled them to rise to the emergency. Men who are destined to work with God must work with God on the level of Godlike tasks. The work must be thought of in world terms."

Elder Quinn said: "Upon Mount Olivet the disciples received an enlarged vision of the Lord, the kingdom and themselves as related to it. Before they had known Him after the flesh, but now they knew Him after the Spirit, and they worshiped Him. From the top of that mountain those men started for the finishing of the work. The power they had to reveal Christ the word is ready for disciples today who will seek for it upon their knees for the glory of God not their own."

That the Seventh-day Adventist churches of the Pacific Coast south of the Oregon-California line baptized 3419 new members during the past four years, an average gain of 853 converts every year, was the statement of Elder J. W. Christian, president of the Pacific Union Conference, in his quadrennial report, submitted last Saturday night to the delegates assembled in the first business session of the convention.

He said the mission funds raised during the last four years amounted to $677,336.81; and the tithe, used for the support of the ministry, amounted for the quadrennial period, to $1,484,214.76. He mentioned the greatly increased attendance at Seventh-day Adventist schools, and the increased patronage at the sanitariums under conference management, located at Glendale, Loma Linda, National City and St. Helena. He urged, however, that increased facilities are needed at some of the sanitariums, particularly Glendale and National City.

Concerning Pacific Union College, at St. Helena, Elder Christian said: "The college is filled to its capacity, and we have, of necessity, been compelled to turn students away this year, which never should need to be done. Our academies, likewise, are filled to overflowing. Particularly is the situation along educational lines critical in Southern California. The Southeastern California and Southern California conferences jointly have but one academy—our institution at San Fernando. Its capacity is less than 100 boarding students. What is that to our large membership? Something must be done to provide opportunity for more of our academic young people to attend our schools."

"We have several large centers of Seventh-day Adventists, where many young people are gathered, and it has become a very live question whether or not in each of these centers we should not maintain a 12-grade, non-boarding school corresponding to a high school. We must give this careful study, and an answer before school opens another year."

Elder H. S. Shaw of Fresno, president of the Central California Conference, submitted his quadrennial report yesterday morning, in which he showed that the tithe receipts for that field for four years were $212,811.65, missions offerings, $96,338.74, and book and periodical sales, $59,218.99. "We now have 45 Sabbath schools, with a membership of 2942," he said. "We have 650 young people belonging to our young people's societies in the conference."

Growth in the California Conference was shown in the report of Elder George W. Wells, president of that field, which includes the counties of Alameda, Contra Costa, Del Norte, Humboldt, Lake, Marin, Mendocino, Monterey, Napa, San Francisco, Santa Cruz, Santa Clara, Santa Mateo, San Benito, Solano, Sonoma and Trinity. "We have," he said, "39 ministers and other workers, 44 churches, 19 parochial schools, with 29 teachers, who are doing creditable work. Our records show that 829 were baptized and added to our list of Sabbath-keepers." He said the members paid during the four years $551,239.22 in tithe and offerings for mission work.

Elder Clarence Santee, reporting the church work of the Northern California Conference, reported $100,650.39 contributed to missions during the quadrennial period, and that the receipts of tithe were $182,935.61 the gain for 1918 and 1919 being 60 per cent over the previous biennial period. Sales of denominational books in that local field alone for the four years amounted to $64,178. Elder Santee reported 23 parochial school teachers employed in 15 schools. There are in his local conference 28 organized Seventh-day Adventist churches.

Committees were appointed at yesterday's conference sessions, as follows: Committee on plans, H. S. Shaw, C. W. Irwin, F. E. Painter, W. W. Ruble, M. E. Cady, J. Adams Stevens, W. F. Martin, A. O. Tait, J. A. Burden, M. M. Hare, M. A. Hollister.

Committee on nominations: G. W. Wells, C. H. Jones, E. W. Farnsworth, Clarence Santee, G. W. Reaser, A. R. Sandborn, J. L. McElhany, W. D. Salisbury, G. A. Grauer.

Committee on credentials and licenses: B. E. Beddoe, W. M. Adams, W. M. Healey, A. J. Osborne, J. E. Bond.

Seventh-day Adventists have circulated nearly thirteen million dollars worth of denominational literature during the past four years, according to the quadrennial report of F. E. Painter, field missionary secretary for the Pacific Union Conference. Of this amount, $324,383 worth has been sold on the Pacific Coast, the large proportion in California. "Never since my connection with the organized work of Seventh-day Adventists, 28 years ago, have I been privileged to render a report based upon such inspiring facts as those which form the basis of this one," said Mr. Painter. "It is interesting to note that the Pacific Union Conference sold $15,000 worth more books last year than were ever sold before by any union conference in the Western states of America, served by the Pacific Press Publishing Association.

"Cheering and inspiring as these figures are, they come far short of conveying an adequate conception of the great work that has been accomplished. They do not represent merely so much business transacted in a commercial sense. They stand for many days of persevering toil, for long miles tramped through heat and dust, or through cold and mud, for faith and courage in spite of rebuffs and hardships, for love and devotion, and as a result of all these, for souls won to God. The sum total of what has been accomplished can never be expressed in terms of mathematical calculation."

Y. M. C. A. CONFERENCE

up, the speaker said he wished to stress two ideas, first, that this Y. M. C. A. work is right, is meeting the conditions and will solve the boy problem; second, that we men must set the example of right living to the boys.

Secretary Williamson here made a brief talk on the importance of the group work with a Christian man as leader and boys of the group as officers. Clean speech, clean sport, and clean living are the ideals held up before the boys. While the work here seems like it is proceeding slowly, it is thorough. The Triangle club of the Intermediate school is the finest in the county. It is under the leadership of W. G. Boyd, and the boy officers are taking great interest. Groups have been formed in the grammar schools and High School, also. Six groups have already been organized and 12 or more is the goal, with between 200 and 300 boys enrolled. Even in enlightened Glendale there is some opposition to the work, but this disappears as it is explained. The women of the P.-T. A. are giving the plan their hearty cooperation. The goal is one or two groups in every grammar school where the boys are large enough and as many as possible in the High School.

Prof. A. W. Tower spoke on the subject of "What Are The Unmet Fundamental Educational Needs of the Boys?" The main point made was that boys need a right understanding of sex life and relations and the changes brought by advancing youth. "When Willie becomes Bill, a new understanding is needed," as the speaker put it. It is then very important that he be guided aright at this time. The restraining influence of religious life makes this training count for the boy.

Prof. J. Rhea Baker of the High School, was the last speaker and his subject was "How Can the Y. M. C. A. County Type of Work Help the Boy in School?" The answer was: By keeping in touch with the work in the schools; by inculcating respect for law and order, obedience and respect to parents, respect for public property and the rights and property of others. Boys can be taught to earn what they get and love their work; respect for the Lord's Day and God's house. They can be given a vision of life as a preparation for the future and be taught that their chief aim is not to have a good time but to glorify God. The work of the Y. M. C. A. is thus four-fold—spiritual, educational, social and physical.

Chairman Howe then summed up the points made by the speakers and announced that the men present would be divided into three groups for consultation on High School, grammar school and Sunday School work by group leaders. After these conferences were ended, the men met together for a short time to listen to County Secretary R. P. Anderson, who explained the work fully and carefully and designated the kind of literature needed for the different activities.
